

Do you need a privacy policy?

Do you have a turnover of less than $3 million per year?

You are not bound by the Privacy Act and you are not required to have a Privacy Policy.

Do you believe it is good practice to have a privacy policy so your members know how their information is managed.

You are not bound by the Privacy Act but have a privacy policy to guide your actions and inform your members as to how their information is managed.

Are your members anxious about providing you with their personal data?

You are not bound by the Privacy Act but you can opt-in to the Act as evidence of your commitment to privacy.

Do you provide health services or do you have an annual turnover of $3 million or more?

You are bound by the Privacy Act and must have a privacy policy and adhere to the Privacy Principles.