SAWLIS 2024

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

DR. HUU KIM LE

Supporting Young People with Technology Addiction

Dr Kim is a Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, specialising in video gaming addiction or “gaming disorder”. In 2015, he received a federal grant to investigate video gaming addiction clinics in Asian countries like Singapore, South Korea and Japan. This led to a TEDx Talk at Adelaide Town Hall titled “The Spell of Digital Immersion”. Dr Le also filmed an acclaimed interactive SBS documentary “Are You Addicted to Technology?” in 2021.

CHARLES

Understanding The Australian Centre for Social Innovation’s (TACSI) Family by Family Program.

Aunty Vickey has worked as a Cultural Competency Facilitator in SA and worked with Aboriginal children under the Guardianship of the Minister. Aunty Vickey has significantly contributed to TACSI’s journey to become more culturally competent and culturally safe in her position as the first Aboriginal Community Connector.

DANIELLE ABBOT

Danielle has worked on the Family by Family program since its inception. From a reduction in child protection notifications and social isolation, to improved parenting, education and employment outcomes, the program demonstrates a powerful approach to building social capital, and most importantly lasting change for families and communities.

ANNA PARTRIDGE HIGHLY ACCOMPLISHED TEACHER

Anna won the Educators SA 2023 Award for Outstanding Contribution to Learners’ Wellbeing & Development. She conceptualised and executed a comprehensive, evidence-based wellbeing framework for R-12 students which won the 2023 Excellence Award for Best Student Wellbeing Program in Australia. She has published a book titled; “The Art of Raising a Resilient Child”.
